- b. Do the appointment and/or removal of the Internal Auditor or the accounting/auditing firm or corporation to which the internal audit function is outsourced require the approval of the audit committee? - YES. The Audit Committee evaluates the performance of internal and external auditors and approves their appointment or removal, and subsequently endorsed to the Company’s Board of Directors for final approval.

- (c) Discuss the internal auditor’s reporting relationship with the audit committee. - The authority of GIA emanates from the Audit Committee; the GIA is directly accountable to the Audit Committee. Does the internal auditor have direct and unfettered access to the board of directors and the audit committee and to all records, properties and personnel? YES, as explicitly stated in the Company’s Internal Audit Charter.

e. Progress against Plans, Issues, Findings and Examination Trends

State the internal audit’s progress against plans, significant issues, significant findings and examination trends.

Progress Against Plans	Prior to Jan. 1 of each year, GIA submits to the Audit Committee for review/approval its proposed annual audit plan. The progress of GIA’s plans is regularly presented to the Audit Committee for review/approval during the quarterly Committee meetings.
Issues⁶	ALL issues are reported to the Audit Committee in the quarterly meetings for their information and appropriate disposition.
Findings⁷	ALL findings are reported to the Audit Committee in the quarterly meetings for their information and appropriate disposition.
Examination Trends	ALL examination trends and non-compliance of GIA recommendations by Auditees are reported to the Audit Committee in the quarterly meetings for their information and appropriate disposition.

[The relationship among progress, plans, issues and findings should be viewed as an internal control review cycle which involves the following step-by-step activities:

- 1) Preparation of an audit plan inclusive of a timeline and milestones;
- 2) Conduct of examination based on the plan;
- 3) Evaluation of the progress in the implementation of the plan;
- 4) Documentation of issues and findings as a result of the examination;
- 5) Determination of the pervasive issues and findings (“examination trends”) based on single year result and/or year-to-year results;
- 6) Conduct of the foregoing procedures on a regular basis.]

f. Audit Control Policies and Procedures ----- Please refer to page 20.a

Disclose all internal audit controls, policies and procedures that have been established by the company and the result of an assessment as to whether the established controls, policies and procedures have been implemented under the column “Implementation.”

Policies & Procedures	Implementation
1) All internal audit controls, policies, procedures that were approved by the Management/Board must be documented and signed by authorized signatories and cascaded to all employees for compliance.	1) IMPLEMENTED- For all approved new policies on internal audit controls, GIA handled documentation, cascading of such to all employees (i.e. employee accountability for governance, risk mgt, controls), and constant monitoring.
2) GIA regularly monitors the implementation status of all previous audit reports/recommendations. GIA discusses with Auditee the results of the follow through review. GIA must provide the Audit Comm with a status report on these.	2) IMPLEMENTED- GIA regularly presents to the Audit Comm status reports on compliance/effectiveness of all approved internal control policies, recommendations to strengthen control measures found ineffective, for comments, approval, and endorsement to the Board.

(f) Mechanism and Safeguards

State the mechanism established by the company to safeguard the independence of the auditors, financial analysts, investment banks and rating agencies (example, restrictions on trading in the company’s shares and imposition of internal approval procedures for these transactions, limitation on the non-audit services that an external auditor may provide to the company):

Auditors (Internal and External)	Financial Analysts	Investment Banks	Rating Agencies
The Company’s Internal Audit Charter clearly defines the scope of authority and access to information of both internal/external auditors in the performance of their functions. In case the independence of auditors is compromised, the IPO Internal Audit Charter is normally used as the basis to resolve the matter.	Reports of financial analysts are mainly based on HOI’s publicly available data (i.e. IPO/SEC/PSE websites). The Company Investor Relations Program states that HOI will not influence/interfere with reports, unless the report is based on inaccurate data. In such cases, HOI will officially inform the financial analyst of the inaccuracy and request for the appropriate clarifications or corrections.	Investment banks mainly base their reports from interviews with HOI officers and publicly available data (i.e. IPO/SEC/PSE websites), an integral part of HOI’s Investor Relations Program. The Program states that HOI will not influence/interfere with reports, unless a report is based on inaccurate data. In such cases, HOI will officially inform the inv bank of the inaccuracy and request for the corrections.	Reports of rating agencies are mainly based on HOI’s publicly available data (i.e. IPO/ PSE websites). The Comp. Investor Relations Prog. states that HOI will not influence/ interfere with reports unless the report is based on inaccurate data. In such cases, HOI will officially inform the rating agency of the inaccuracy and request for the appropriate clarifications/corrections.

After the Management Report of Mr John F. Alabastro, Mr Phillip Turner raised a concern on the amount of the Company's General and Administrative Expenses versus its Revenue. He noted that the said expenses increased by 39%. The President of Malayan Colleges, Inc. (Operating under the name of Mapua Institute of Technology), Dr. Reynaldo B. Vea, addressed the concern of Mr. Turner, explaining that the increase in expenses is a result of the schools expansion. Mr Turner said that it is hoped that there would be an improvement in the expenses, but nonetheless the results of the schools operation are commendable. He then congratulated the Board.

Another stockholder, Mr Guillermo F. Gili, Jr. inquired on whether the effects of the implementation of the K+12 program have been considered. He also asked if there would be a need to reduce the number of faculty members as a result of the absence of enrolees that said program will bring. Dr. Vea replied that measures are already being undertaken to address the negative effect of said program, particularly by aggressively trying to increase the number of current enrolees. He also said that there is a possibility that the number of faculty members will have to be reduced, but such cannot be confirmed at the moment.
